(6) Special disability leave will count as duty in calculating service for pension but it will not count as service for leave. It will not be regarded as interrupting service for leave under the ordinary rules, nor as diminishing the amount of such leave at the Government servants' credit nor as part of the maximum leave admissible to him, except that leave on average salary taken under clause 7 (b) will be reckoned as furlough on half average salary against the total amount of furlough prescribed in Article 203 and as furlough on average salary against the total period of such furlough prescribed in Article 207 (i).

(7) Leave allowances during such leave shall, subject to the maxima prescribed in Article 209, be equal :—

(a) for the first three months of any period of such leave, including a period of such leave granted under clause (5) of this Article to average salary ; and

(b) for the remaining period of any such leave to half average salary, or at the Government servants' option, for a period not exceeding three months furlough on average salary either by itself or in combination with privilege leave which would otherwise be admissible to him to average salary.

(8) In the case of a person to whom the Workmen's Compensation Act applies, the amount of leave allowance payable under this Article shall be reduced by the amount of compensation payable under that Act.

Section II.

Government may extend the application of the provisions of Section I to a Government servant who is disabled by injury accidentally incurred in or in consequence of the due performance of his official duties or in consequence of his official position or by illness incurred in the performance of any particular duty which has the effect of increasing his liability to illness or injury beyond the ordinary risk attaching to the Civil post which he holds. The grant of this concession is subject to the further conditions :—

(a) that the disability, if due to disease, must be certified by a Medical Board to be directly due to the performance of the particular duty, and

(b) that if the Government servant has contracted such disability during service otherwise than with a Military force, it must be in the opinion of Government so exceptional in character or in the circumstances of its occurrence as to justify such unusual treatment as the grant of this form of leave; and

(c) that the period of absence recommended by the Medical Board may be covered in part by leave under this rule and in part by other leave and that the amount of special disability leave granted on average pay may be less than three months."

In the said Regulations, in Article 305, after clause (f), the following clause shall be added, namely,—

"(g) Officiating pay drawn by a Government Servant holding a substantive appointment in a lower grade while holding a post in a higher grade in temporary or officiating capacity, provided the Government Servant continuously held the post in the higher grade for not less than two complete years immediately before his retirement.

Explanation :—(1) For purposes of computing the period of two years under this clause, leave of all kinds taken by the Government Servant during the said period shall be included in the period of two years, provided it is certified that he would have continued to hold the post in the higher grade if he had not proceeded on leave.

(2) If the Government Servant is confirmed in the post in the higher grade during the period of two years, the period of two years, for purpose of this clause, shall be reckoned including the period in which he held that post after such confirmation.

(3) It is not necessary that the Government Servant should hold the same post in the higher grade continuously for not less than two years ; the officiating pay drawn by him in any post in the higher grade continuously for not less than two years will be included in his emoluments."
